Lesson 1

Your role

Congratulations on your appointment as an assistant governor!

Your role on the district team is crucial. You're the connection between your clubs and the district, and you're the main support person for those clubs. You help implement Rotary's Action Plan, and the relationships you build with club leaders make Rotary stronger.

By working closely with the governor, you also:

- Motivate incoming presidents
- Help clubs reach their potential
- Provide continuity in leadership

These are your official responsibilities:

- Visit each club regularly, in person or virtually, to discuss club activities, resources, and opportunities.

- Support clubs in setting and achieving goals, finding solutions to challenges, resolving conflicts, and meeting membership and financial requirements.
- Serve as a liaison between clubs and district committees.
- Assess each club's ability to thrive, and mentor club leaders on strategies to help their clubs succeed.
- Encourage clubs to get involved in district activities and committees.
- Help to organize, start, promote, and support new clubs, and especially encourage the use of innovative club types.
- Keep the governor informed about the progress your clubs make toward their goals.
- Stay up to date on Rotary initiatives.
- Share the status of clubs with your successor.

Preparing for your role

Whether you're a new assistant governor or an experienced one, this advice from other assistant governors can help you succeed.

1

Learn which club and district leaders you'll work with. Try to meet the people who will hold these roles before your term begins.

2

Communicate with the district leadership team to coordinate your efforts to support clubs during your term.

3

Understand how to use Rotary's online tools.

4

Talk with the outgoing assistant governor to learn about the clubs you'll support.

5

Use Rotary's Action Plan toolkit to help you understand and assess your clubs' strengths and challenges. Use that information to plan for your term.

6

Attend learning events, including the district team learning seminar, the presidents-elect learning seminar (PELS), and the club leadership learning seminar. Start building relationships and work with incoming club presidents during PELS to help them set goals.

7

Schedule your club visits for the year.

8

Make sure that you're familiar with Rotary's Action Plan and the latest Rotary initiatives, policies, and resources.

Updated June 2023

Lesson 1

Getting started

Before you start your term, think about how you can get to know your clubs so you can give them the support and resources they need. Start by developing relationships with presidents-elect and learning about the challenges they face and the goals they want to achieve.

You'll need to understand each club's strengths and needs in the areas of membership, Foundation giving, operations, and financial management and stewardship. Ask the outgoing assistant governor to tell you how they think the clubs are doing. By evaluating each club as a whole, you can decide — in collaboration with your governor — what kind of support to offer.

Membership

Here's how you can assess membership for each of your clubs:

- Review the Club Growth and Member Viability and Growth reports in Rotary Club Central to understand membership trends and retention rates.
- Talk with club presidents about how their clubs handle online membership leads. Review the following reports in My Rotary to learn about the leads that have been assigned to clubs:

- Active and Historical Membership Leads Report
- Membership Leads Executive Summary

History of giving to The Rotary Foundation

Understand each club's giving history by:

- Reviewing their current Foundation giving goals, progress, and achievements in Rotary Club Central, looking at Annual Fund contributions, PolioPlus Fund contributions, and Major Donors
- Reviewing reports in Rotary Club Central, such as the Club Fundraising Analysis, Club Recognition Summary, and Monthly Contribution report
- Working with the district Rotary Foundation chair to increase giving in the district

Operating structure and effectiveness

Talk with the outgoing assistant governor and presidents-elect to learn more about how each club operates. You may want to ask:

- Does the club have a strategic plan?
- Do club leaders enter annual goals in Rotary Club Central?
- Does the club have active and engaged leaders?
- Is there a process for ensuring continuity in leadership?
- Do members attend district events and seminars?

Financial management and stewardship of funds

The financial health of your clubs is extremely important. Here are some questions to ask club officers or the outgoing assistant governor to learn about how each club manages its finances:

- Does the club approve a budget for the upcoming Rotary year, appoint a treasurer, and keep separate bank accounts for administration and fundraising or project funds?
- Does the club achieve its fundraising goals?
- Does the club pay district and Rotary International dues on time?
- Does the treasurer update the board regularly on the club's finances?

Club assessments

One of your responsibilities is to encourage clubs to assess how they're doing. By examining their practices and traditions, clubs can learn what's working well and what they could improve. Help them get started by:

- Asking club leaders to take the Rotary Club Health Check
- Suggesting that club presidents get feedback through the Member Satisfaction Survey
- Promoting the Club Planning Assistant to help clubs address their particular challenges

You can find links to these in the Resources section. Make sure clubs know that they can contact you if they have questions about how to use these assessments or what to do with the results.

When is a club in trouble?

According to the Standard Rotary Club Constitution, clubs are expected to:

- Pursue the Object of Rotary
- Carry out successful service projects related to the five Avenues of Service
- Strengthen Rotary's membership
- Support The Rotary Foundation
- Develop leaders beyond the club level

Clubs that are struggling to meet these objectives or the minimum standards below may need special attention from you and other district leaders.

A functioning club should:

- Meet regularly
- Implement service projects that address the needs of the local community and/or communities in other countries
- Welcome visits by the assistant governor, governor, or any officer of Rotary International
- Pay per capita dues to RI
- Subscribe to a Rotary regional magazine
- Maintain liability insurance that is appropriate for the region (United States only)
- Act in a manner that is consistent with the RI Constitution and Bylaws and Rotary Code of Policies
- Pay RI membership and district dues without outside assistance
- Keep membership lists current in Rotary's database by using My Rotary or a club management system
- Resolve club disputes amicably
- Maintain cooperative relations with the district
- Cooperate with Rotary by not initiating or maintaining litigation against Rotary International, The Rotary Foundation, associate foundations, or Rotary's international offices
- Complete the election review process established in the RI Bylaws, section 13.030.

Tell your governor which clubs are failing to meet these standards.

Working with your governor

The other main function of your role is to support the district governor. As the liaison between club and district leaders, you'll share information about your clubs' strengths and weaknesses with the district governor, governor-elect, and appropriate district committees. These discussions promote continuity and help leaders address ongoing challenges. Your governor may ask for regular status updates.

One way to communicate about a club's status is by using the Rate Clubs section of Rotary Club Central. In it, you can leave comments after your club visits or as agreed on with your governor. See the Maximizing Governor Visits course for more information about this tool.

The governor may ask you to discuss these items with your clubs:

- Creating My Rotary accounts
- Setting goals
- Entering and updating goals in Rotary Club Central
- Attending the district conference, district training assembly, PETS, and other district events
- Diversifying their membership to reflect the demographics of their communities
- Using social media to promote themselves
- Observing World Polio Day, Rotaract Week and Interact Week, and other events
- Due dates for reporting club officers, club invoices, and award nominations

Lesson 3

Setting goals

Identifying areas where clubs could improve will help them set and adjust their goals. Encourage clubs to align their goals with Rotary's Action Plan and the district's goals.

Rotary Club Central is a useful tool for managing and tracking a club's goals. You can find reports about its membership, service, public image, and fundraising trends. Encourage clubs to use Rotary Club Central to set and enter their goals. This makes it easy for incoming leaders to see the club's history and for district leaders to track the club's progress toward its goals. Rotary Club Central fosters continuity of leadership, increases transparency, and saves paper.

Goal setting

Setting goals is crucial to having a successful Rotary year because it provides a plan of action.

Step 1

Analyze your clubs' strengths and weaknesses

Meet with presidents-elect to review past club trends and current practices. Use the results of the Rotary Club Health Check to find clubs' strengths and weaknesses.

Step 2

Develop goals

Goals should be measurable, challenging, achievable, and time-specific. You'll want to help club leaders set goals that will allow the clubs to operate effectively and engage all of their members. Make sure that presidents-elect enter their goals into Rotary Club Central by 1 July.

Step 3

Create action plans

After a club develops its goals, be sure it has an action plan to achieve them. For example, a club could divide each goal into small, manageable steps with due dates and set milestones for achieving the goal.

Step 4

Evaluate progress

Encourage club presidents to keep their goals current and to track their progress in Rotary Club Central so that you can review those before you visit. During your visits, discuss the club's progress with the president.

-  After your district governor assigns clubs to you, use My Rotary to learn more about them and Rotary Club Central to check on their goals.

Lesson 4

Visiting clubs

Now that you know how your clubs operate, you can find strategies to support them and plan productive visits.

Plan to visit your clubs at least four times a year. (Some clubs may need more support than that.)

Prepare for your visits by:

- Reviewing clubs' goals, Foundation giving, membership reports, and service project activity in Rotary Club Central
- Using the Assistant Governor Club Visit Planner, available as part of this course, to help you plan your visits

Visits typically take place at regular club meetings. Here are some suggestions for your visits.

Tips for visiting clubs

- Before your visit, ask the president, president-elect, and even the president-nominee, if that person is chosen already, whether they need anything from you or the district.
- Give them any reminders or other important information from the district.
- Promote upcoming training events by telling members how they'll benefit from attending. Be specific.
- Use your visit to develop relationships with club leaders and members.
- Attend club events while you're there. The more involved and visible you are, the more you'll be seen as approachable and supportive.

Other ways to connect with clubs

Depending on geographical distance, the number of clubs you support, and the type of support clubs need, in-person visits may not always be feasible. You can still connect with your clubs' members by phone, video chat, and email, either individually or as a group.

Talking with club presidents individually can build rapport and help both of you address specific needs and sensitive issues. It's also a good time to check on their progress toward their goals.

Leading group calls or in-person group meetings also helps club presidents develop relationships so they can learn from and support each other.

Approaching your clubs

How you approach your clubs can make a big difference in how receptive they are to working with you.

1 Build relationships with clubs to establish trust

Here's how:

- Visit them as early as possible in the year
- Make yourself available and approachable
- Attend social events so club leaders get to know you
- Recognize club members' achievements at meetings

2 Be empathetic

Listen to the members of your clubs. Guide and coach them by offering suggestions. Know when the best approach is not to interfere.

3 Tell clubs what they can expect from you

Clubs may hesitate to contact you about some situations because they aren't sure what the assistant governor can help with. Make sure they know what they can expect from you and what you can offer them.

4 Recognize that each club operates differently

Remembering that there isn't just one way to run a club will help you and the governor maintain realistic expectations about your clubs' goals and how the clubs will work with you.

5 Understand the specifics of clubs' challenges

What works well in one situation may not be at all helpful in another. Talk with club leaders to understand the causes of their problems as well as their unique strengths. Use what you learn to guide them to effective solutions and strategies.

Lesson 5

Tailoring your support

Every club has different strengths and weaknesses. Help clubs succeed by offering advice and resources that meet their unique needs. Follow these steps to understand your clubs' challenges and tailor your support to their needs.

1 Identify problems and their causes

Listen to club leaders and ask thoughtful questions to make sure you understand not just the problem but its cause. Try this questioning technique:

- Note the problem.
- Ask: Why does this happen? If the cause is someone's behavior, find out what motivates the behavior.
- Turn each answer into the next why question.
- Repeat steps 2 and 3 until you find the cause of the problem.

You can also ask your clubs to take the Rotary Club Health Check and survey their members to learn what they like and don't like about the club. Use the answers to help you all determine what's causing the problem.

Guide clubs to practical solutions

After you've found the cause of the problem, empower your clubs to take action by asking for their ideas for solving it.

2 Create vibrant clubs

Vibrant clubs engage their members, carry out meaningful projects, and try new ideas. Help your clubs become more vibrant by using the best practices listed below.

Vibrant clubs

Help your clubs thrive by recommending these best practices.

(1) Make long-term plans

Ask clubs what they want to be like in three to five years. Do they want a more diverse membership? Are they interested in involving their communities in more club activities? Or in doing more meaningful projects?

Help them achieve these goals and more by having them make a strategic plan and set goals that they can achieve in three to five years.

(2) Set annual goals

It's easier to achieve long-term goals when they're broken into smaller annual goals. Rotary Club Central can help a club transform its vision into mini goals that it can reach more quickly.

(3) Hold engaging meetings

Lively, informative meetings get members excited about the club.

Suggest that clubs use the Member Satisfaction Survey to learn what members like and don't like about their meetings and get ideas for improving them.

(4) Have a communication plan

Encourage each club to have a strong communication plan so it can inform members and the community about itself and its activities. The plan should include ways to include members who can't attend meetings in person, such as letting them participate through videoconferencing services.

(5) Strive for continuity in leadership

To achieve their long-term plans, clubs need leaders who have been involved from the beginning in setting goals and making decisions. Continuity in leadership can help.

Suggest to your clubs that they make committee appointments last for multiple years and have a current, incoming, and past chair on each committee.

(6) Adopt bylaws that suit the club

The recommended Rotary Club Bylaws are meant to be adapted to suit a club's needs. As your clubs evolve, their bylaws should reflect their actual practices. Recommend that club leaders involve members in shaping the club by reviewing the club bylaws each year and recommending updates.

(7) Develop relationships within the club

People who enjoy their clubs are more likely to be active members. Clubs can keep members connected to the club by:

- Organizing social and networking events that give them time to get to know each other better
- Offering a mentoring program to help new members develop friendships more quickly

(8) Match members' activities to their interests

Are members participating in activities that they genuinely care about? Members who are involved in activities they enjoy are often more committed.

Encourage clubs to survey members regularly to find out what their interests are and plan activities that they enjoy.

Clubs can also ask new members to develop programs and activities based on their interests. This will help them feel valued, give them a stake in what the club is doing, and grant them power to shape the club.

(9) Coach members to lead

Clubs can help members develop leadership skills by assigning them a role at meetings or asking them to mentor someone new.

Remind clubs to visit the Learning Center regularly to see what new courses they can use to develop their expertise.

They can also use surveys to see which skills members want to develop. The Leadership in Action Leader's Guide can help clubs design an effective training program.

(10) Create practical committees

Vibrant clubs use committees to achieve their goals and offer members opportunities to be involved.

Larger clubs may be able to accomplish more by creating additional committees or subcommittees. Smaller clubs might want to combine committees to avoid having members serving in too many roles and becoming overwhelmed.

It's a good idea for clubs of all sizes to review their committees each year to make sure they're effective.

3 Connect them to resources

Tell clubs about the tools and resources that can help them address challenges and become more effective. Here are some ideas:

- Encourage clubs to use the Club Planning Assistant to find strategies for their specific challenges
- Recommend alternative ways to meet members' needs, such as:
 - Starting new types of clubs
 - Offering alternative membership types or using different meeting formats
 - Relaxing attendance expectations
 - Reducing the frequency of meetings
- Connect clubs that excel in a particular area with clubs that are struggling in that area
- Recommend someone from the district who can help

See the Membership page on My Rotary for more resources.

Lesson 6

Resources

You can recommend these resources to help clubs improve their member experience.

Membership resources

Find a comprehensive list of membership resources on My Rotary.

Club Planning Assistant

Use this to develop strategies to address your club's specific challenges.

Membership Assessment Tools

Rotary Club Health Check

Identify problem areas and make the suggested changes to keep your club relevant for your members and the community.

Club flexibility options

Review the various types of clubs, memberships, and meeting formats to find the one that's right for you.

Lesson 7

Summary

Remember these tips as you work with your clubs:

- Build relationships with club leaders so they'll be receptive to the district's support.
- Help club leaders set and manage goals.
- Visit and check in with your clubs regularly.
- Guide and coach them to find solutions to their problems.
- Regularly tell your governor and district team how your clubs are doing.

Maximizing Governor visits

Course description

If you're an assistant governor or governor, this course will help you prepare to make effective visits to clubs. You'll find tips for scheduling these visits, how to prepare, and what to include in your talks.

Lesson 1

Overview

Governors visit each club — either separately or during multiclub meetings — at least once during the year. The goal of these visits is to motivate and inspire members and offer district-level support for improving their communities.

During these visits, pay extra attention to struggling clubs and commend those that are successful. The visit is an important occasion for the club.

An effective club visit can lead to:

- A productive relationship with a club
- An increase in the club's sense of support from the district
- Encouragement and motivation for the club to adopt Rotary initiatives
- Stronger relationships with club leaders

How assistant governors help

Assistant governors are an integral part of making these visits successful. Because of your close working relationship with your clubs, you understand their needs and can prepare the governor and club leaders for each visit.

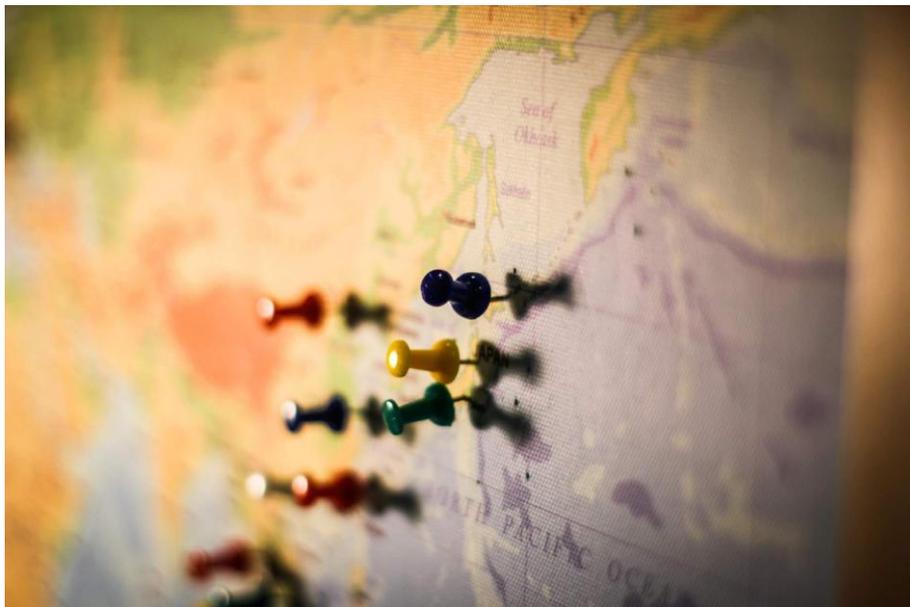

Scheduling visits

The governor, assistant governors, and club leaders should work together to decide on the best time for the visit. The funding that governors receive from Rotary assumes that you'll visit neighboring clubs consecutively.

Here are some tips to help you schedule visits:

1. Arrange for your visits to coincide with important club events, such as:
 - Charter Night programs
 - New member celebrations or orientations
 - Award presentations
 - Rotary Foundation events

2. Schedule visits to new or struggling clubs, and to others that require special attention, early in the Rotary year. If visiting in person again isn't feasible, follow up with them later in the year and have the assistant governor check in more regularly.
3. Ensure that all logistical arrangements, such as hotels and meals, are in place for the governor and the governor's partner, if they are accompanying the governor on the visit.
4. Factor in the club locations and how much time you will need for travel.
5. Encourage clubs to invite Rotaractors and Interactors to your visits. Otherwise, contact Rotaract clubs to schedule a time to connect.

During your visit

Use your visit to engage members and emphasize the district's role in supporting clubs

During your visit, you'll want to discuss the club's status and motivate members.

Meeting with clubs

When you visit clubs, arrange to attend projects, events, or ceremonies that are important to the club.

During the visit, you'll want to:

- Meet with the board to discuss the club's status with the president and other club leaders before the full meeting
- Ensure that the constitution and bylaws of the club comply with the constitutional documents, especially after meetings of the Council on Legislation
- Encourage club leaders to use the Rotary Club Health Check to identify issues that need attention and then create a membership plan to address them
- Attend a club meeting or assembly and talk with members about club activities, issues, and how the district can support their efforts
- Take time to listen to members' and club leaders' concerns
- Give out awards if your visit coincides with a recognition ceremony

Talking openly with club leaders will lead to a productive relationship throughout the year.

The assistant governor's role is to be a resource for both the club and governor. You'll communicate the governor's feedback and ideas to the club after the visit. Make sure you participate in the entire visit, including the meeting with the board.

Motivating clubs

As governor, you'll have the opportunity to influence and motivate many Rotarians during club visits. Your talk should leave a lasting impact on the members.

What to talk about

Your remarks are a chance to inform and enlighten people. Use stories and examples to illustrate some of the following approaches.

- Explain the presidential theme and how clubs can put it into action.
- Emphasize that district leaders can help members. Give examples, such as assisting with service projects or by connecting clubs, along with those leaders' contact information.
- Encourage clubs to create an experience that works for all their members, and remind them that they can make changes in order to accommodate new and current members.
- Highlight important Rotary International and district issues.
- Recognize outstanding club projects and individual Rotarian contributions.
- Explain or emphasize Rotary initiatives and address any questions or concerns that club members have.

Preparation is the key to a successful speech.

1) Have a shorter version ready

Be prepared to adjust the length of your remarks in case you don't have as much time as you expected.

2) Grab the audience's attention

Starting with a powerful opening line, such as a thought-provoking question or statement, will immediately engage your audience.

3) Use a conversational approach

To avoid reading your presentation, use bullet points instead of writing out your remarks in full.

4) Tell a personal story

Reflecting on a memorable moment in your life with Rotary will keep your audience engaged.

5) Tailor your speech

Highlight outstanding club members, projects, and other achievements.

6) Close with a call to action

What thoughts, ideas, or feelings do you want your audience to leave with? What do you want people to do?

7) Practice, practice, practice

Rehearsing your speech beforehand will help you feel confident and prepared.

Preparing for the visit

Assistant governors

You're in a good position to prepare club leaders and the governor for the visit. Make sure the visit is successful by creating an agenda, working with club leaders, and learning about the goals, accomplishments, and challenges of the clubs.

Develop an agenda

Start by working with your clubs to develop an agenda. The same plan may not work for every club, but all agendas should include:

- A discussion of the club's progress toward its goals
- Time for the club board to present committee plans, activities, and accomplishments
- Recognition of club projects
- A report from the governor on important district initiatives and Rotary issues
- Time to look at membership trends
- Time for questions and open discussion

Prepare club leaders

- Build excitement by encouraging club leaders to promote the visit on their club website, through social media, and in their newsletter.
- Suggest that clubs recognize members during the visit or arrange for the governor to present awards or induct new members.
- Encourage clubs to:
 - Enter their goals in Rotary Club Central, if they haven't already
 - Review their progress toward their goals and reflect on members' morale
 - Identify questions or concerns they want to discuss with the governor
 - Organize reports on committee plans, activities, and accomplishments

Work with your governor

- Identify clubs that need a visit early in the year, including those that are new, have low membership, or aren't meeting minimum standards. Discuss the club's strengths, weaknesses, and needs with the governor. Offer insight and potential steps for improvement.
- Supply a profile of the club, including the status of service projects, Rotary Foundation grant participation, public image efforts, and membership trends.
- Discuss any other successes or challenges for each club.
- Finalize the agenda with the governor.

Governors

The key to a successful visit is taking the time to understand each club's goals, accomplishments, and challenges. You can do that by:

- Looking at Rotary Club Central to see a club's progress toward its goals and to review previous ratings
- Reviewing club and district membership, Foundation, and service reports in Rotary Club Central to get an overview of how each club is doing in these areas
- Working with assistant governors to determine the strengths, weaknesses, and needs of each club so you can address them at your visits
- Looking at each club's website, social media pages, and newsletters to learn about their activities and recognize their accomplishments

Rating clubs

The last step of each visit is to report on the club's status in Rotary Club Central. District governors and assistant governors should use the Club Ratings section to report each club's strengths, challenges, and activities.

The club rating guide is designed to help you establish rating standards in your district.

5 Finalize ratings box

Click here to finalize your ratings. This should be done by 1 June.

District governors can view their year and the two previous years of club ratings. Governors-elect can view the current year. Assistant governors can view ratings only for their year in office and for the clubs they're assigned. All clubs should be rated and their ratings confirmed by 1 June.

Consensus on ratings

Because ratings are subjective, it's important for governors, governors-elect, governors-nominee, and assistant governors to agree on the criteria for each rating.

Comments

Comments are an important feature in Rotary Club Central and can be very helpful in recording and tracking the progress of your clubs. Comments can help clarify the ratings and establish clear communication between the assistant governor and governor. Governors and assistant governors should enter comments after each visit with a club. The examples below show some possible comments.

i Assistant governors can comment on and view ratings for their assigned clubs only. The governor and governor-elect can comment and see ratings for all clubs in the district. Clubs can't view them at all.

Let's look at how district leaders can work together to develop rating standards.

It's the beginning of the year, and the governor of District 8000 would like to establish common criteria for rating clubs before starting her visits. She meets with her assistant governors and governor-elect to discuss each rating category. They all have different definitions of what each category means and how to rate a club.

They discuss the rating categories and find examples for each one so everyone's evaluation is clear and consistent. Here's what they decide:

Excellent

- Membership has increased in the last year.
- All goals and achievements are entered into Rotary Club Central.
- Most members contribute to The Rotary Foundation.
- The club participates in several district and global grants.

Good

- Membership has increased or stayed the same in the last year.
- Goals and some achievements are entered into Rotary Club Central.
- Half the members contribute to The Rotary Foundation.
- The club participates in a few district and global grants.

Satisfactory

- Membership has stayed the same or decreased in the last year.
- Partial goals are entered into Rotary Club Central.
- Fewer than half of members contribute to The Rotary Foundation.
- The club participates in district grants.

Needs improvement

- Membership has decreased in the last year.
- Goals aren't entered into Rotary Club Central.
- Very few members contribute to The Rotary Foundation.
- The club doesn't participate in grants.

Nonfunctional

- Meetings are held less often than twice a month.
- The club doesn't implement service projects that meet the needs of the local or international communities it serves.
- Club officers don't accept a visit from the assistant governor or governor.
- The club doesn't pay district or Rotary dues.

Let's practice

While comments won't tell you everything you need to know about a club, they can give you an idea of a club's health.

Look at the examples below of comments you might make or see in the Club Ratings section of Rotary Club Central. Using the criteria established by District 8000 above, rate the clubs by dragging the card to the rating that's most appropriate.

	Excellent	Good	Satisfactory	Needs improvement
1) The club has inconsistent practices and had a recent change in leadership.
2) The club is rebuilding after losing half its members. It added three last week.
3) The club has great public relations but struggles to find a regular day to meet.
4) Members aren't engaged and aren't cooperating with the president.
5) The club just changed to meeting twice a month and participation improved.
6) The club grows consistently, involves new members, and completed a global grant.
7) Service projects have poor participation. The club will ask members for ideas.
8) It's the largest club, with the highest total and per person annual giving.

Answer:

1 – Needs improvement

2 – Satisfactory

3 – Good

4 – Needs improvement

5 – Good

6 – Excellent

7 – Satisfactory

8 – Excellent
